

Idaho Kairos Prison Ministry

Instructions for Attending Kairos Closing

1. Be at the Idaho State Correctional Institution (ISCI) by 1:00pm on Kairos Closing Day.
2. Dress conservatively. No open-toed shoes. No blue jeans or other blue clothing. Women should wear slacks or long dresses.
3. No heavy perfume.
4. BEFORE YOU LEAVE YOUR CAR empty all of your pockets so that the ONLY things you bring in are your driver's license and your car keys. NO CELL PHONES.
5. Come to the visitor front gate and they will remotely unlock it to let you enter.
6. The prison will give you a Visitor's Badge in exchange for your driver's license. Secure it to your lapel or wear it around your neck where it can be seen. Be careful not to lose it.
7. The prison will have you sign in at the entry when they give you your badge. You will also sign in when you go through Control (only about 30 feet from the entry).
8. The only contact with inmates can be a handshake. Absolutely no hugging by women!!! This can result in severe consequences for the inmate.

Directions to Idaho State Correctional Institution (ISCI)

- Take the Orchard exit off the I-84 freeway and turn South on Gowen Road
- Follow Gowen Road around the airport until you see the army tanks/equipment on your left. S. Pleasant Valley Road will be just past that on your right (at the stoplight).

- Turn right on S. Pleasant Valley Road and drive about 5 miles.
- Turn left into the Idaho Department of Correction complex (multiple facilities).
- ISCI will be past the South Boise Women's Correctional Center and the Idaho Maximum Security Institution on the left. There is plenty of parking.
