

What Can You Pray For?

Here are some ideas, some needs, for prayer for the upcoming Kairos Weekend.

- Pray for the Candidates. Pray that they will stay the entire weekend. That they won't get sick. That they won't get unexpected visitors or meetings with their lawyers. Because once they leave the Kairos Weekend, they are not allowed to come back.
- Pray that the Candidates will receive the Holy Spirit. That their eyes will see the evidence of God's love, that their ears will hear the message of the Gospel, that they will open their hearts to receive Jesus.
- Pray that the "walls" the Candidates create for protection will fall. That they will build relationships with other Christian brothers.
- Pray that there will be no disruptions within the prison itself that would interfere.
- Pray that the Corrections Officers will not get in the way of what we are trying to do.
- Pray that the message of the Holy Spirit will reach the Corrections Officers too because like the guards around the apostle Paul, they can't help but hear what is being said.
- Pray that the team members will be healthy. We're a bunch of old men mostly, subject to all the aches and pains of being older.
- Pray that the team members can leave all the concerns of their normal lives behind them. The worries about their families, their jobs, the hot water breaking, etc.
- Pray that our families will be protected while we are gone. Both spiritually and physically.
- Pray that the team will be focused on God and submitting themselves to His will for this weekend. To leave it all in His hands.
- Pray for a hedge of protection around the building we are in and around the prison as a whole. That angels will watch over us and drive the demons away who would like to see this Kairos weekend fail.

(Ephesians 6:12) For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the world's rulers, of the darkness of this age, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
